

- 1) Barbara Ely of Monmouth Beach (demo sales team) and Jean Badgley, Sea Bright, Habitat for Humanity Board of Trustees.
- 2) Angela Shannon, Wall, owner, Atelier East Design Showroom; and designer Giuseppe Grillo, Brielle.
- 3) Susan Lindstrom, Brick, Habitat for Humanity restore director; and Charles Mannino, Tinton Falls, Habitat for Humanity board of directors vice president.

An Evening of Goodwill and Design

TEXT BY LISA SCHOFIELD
PHOTOS BY FRANK GALIPO

“An Evening of Goodwill and Green Design” to benefit Coastal Habitat for Humanity, Asbury Park, was held at Asbury Park’s Atelier East Design Showroom. The event featured a presentation by designer Angela Shannon, jazz by Ricky Riccardi & The Goodfellas, as well as Italian fare by Sicliana’s Italian Cuisine, and an organic wine tasting by Court Liquors and Mionetto Prosecco. The event was attended by 50 guests and raised approximately $2,300 for Habitat’s Asbury Park revitalization project.

- 4) From left: Ray Gabler, Wall, Habitat for Humanity development director; Maureen Mulligan, Jackson, Habitat for Humanity executive director; Jen Watson, Long Branch, co-owner, in BLOOM events & pr; Angela Shannon, Wall, Atelier East Design Showroom; and Jennifer Smiga, Long Branch, co-owner, in BLOOM events & pr.
- 5) Ricky Riccardi performs.

Go to www.injerseymag.com

SEND US YOUR EVENT PHOTOS:

If you have a social event you would like covered, and/or if you have JPEGs (300 dpi quality) and captions from a recent fundraiser to be featured in Sunday Socials or In Jersey magazine, please e-mail your information and photographs with a contact name and number (not for publication) to Jacqueline Sergeant, editor, at jsergeant@njpressmedia.com. For more information, call 732-643-4033. Information for coverage consideration must be submitted at least one month prior to the event date.