Provident Bank donates 350 volunteer hours

Volunteers from Provident Bank donated their time for the fourth year in a row during the 2016 New Jersey Bankers Build. Since 2013, the bank has donated close to 350 volunteer hours. Volunteers spent the day working on the home of 62 year old Ms. Robbins, who made sure they stayed hydrated and full with her homemade lemonade and cookies. By the end of the day, 2 trucks were filled with branches and leaves, railings were repaired and the home looked like new.

"Provident loves to participate in the Coastal Habitat opportunities each year. We wouldn't miss a chance to work with all the amazing individuals that make these builds a success every single time. We have a great relationship with the Habitat team, they are a joy to work with! We have many volunteers who are at the build every year and when we have first time volunteers they are always so impressed by all that is accomplished in one single day! It is a great feeling to be able to see a community come together and help in any way we can. The smiles, stories, tears and hugs make it all worth it; it doesn't seem like work at all!" - Christine Cartwright, Corporate Donations Administrator
