Coastal Habitat For Humanity Helps Rebuild Homes Hit By Sandy

MONMOUTH COUNTY - The Hurricane Sandy NJ Relief Fund joined the Coastal Habitat for Humanity's team for a service event recently in Manasquan. Coastal Habitat for Humanity was awarded $839,000 from the Relief Fund. This grant is being used to help rebuild

20 homes in Monmouth County and also help to renovate Camp Evans as a volunteer housing facility.

First lady Mary Pat Christie was present to meet with volunteers and participate in the rebuilding efforts of the home.
